

Fred O. Henzi

Pittsburgh
Swiss Honor
Fred O. Henzi

Pittsburgh.—On May 3, one hundred members of the Swiss-American Society of Pittsburgh paid tribute to Mr. Fred O. Henzi, retired Consular Agent and banker on the occasion of his 90th birthday. The event was in the form of a dinner party held at Cranberry Hall, Warrendale, Pa. Several out-of-town guests attended, among them Mr. and Mrs. Morris Baldwin (daughter) of Clarion, Pa.

Festivities began with an address of welcome by president Walter Heer, followed by an appropriate "toast" (champagne cocktails), dinner and an enjoyable program, to say the least.

To commence the program, Mr. René Nigg, our present Consular Agent, also Master of Ceremonies for the evening delivered a testimonial speech and on behalf of the Society presented the honor guest a case of imported wines as a token gift. Mr. Henzi was also the recipient of other gifts and flowers from many "old-time" friends.

The highlight of the evening came when Mrs. Ozzie De Paul (daughter) sang several selections, among them "Schwyzerhüsl," a favorite in her father's repertoire. Mr. De Paul (son-in-law), violinist with the world-famous Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, rendered several solos, among them "Swiss Lullaby," also a favorite.

Mr. Henzi, hale and hearty and who certainly belies his age, delivered an address of gratitude and as a climax to the evening, individual congratulations and well wishing were in order.

Members Charles and Marie Hauser tabulated the entire festivities for posterity with their colored movie camera.

In conclusion, I quote a line from one of several telegrams received by our guest of honor during the evening: "You are too young to be so old," which left us all, I am sure, with the aspiration to repeat, God-willing, this event on May 3rd, 1975.

Florence Gerber Cappe.

(The editor joins Mr. Henzi's friends in many other parts of the country to wish him 'noch recht manches Jährlein beschaulicher Ruhe'.)
